Police Services Board Selects Deputy Chief of Police

NEWMARKET – The Regional Municipality of York Police Services Board announces that Superintendent Thomas Carrique has been selected as a Deputy Chief of York Regional Police. Deputy Chief Designate Carrique, a 21-year veteran of York Regional Police, is currently responsible for Staff Services and has previously served as the Officer-in-Charge of the Organized Crime Bureau and the Traffic Bureau.

“Deputy Chief Designate Carrique is an exceptional addition to the Executive Command Team,” said Chairman Danny Wheeler. “The Board chose from within the Service among a very talented pool of individuals and is confident that the future of York Regional Police is in capable hands.”

“On behalf of all the men and women of York Regional Police, it brings me great pleasure to congratulate Tom Carrique on his appointment to the rank of Deputy Chief of Police,” said Chief Eric Jolliffe. “Deputy Chief Designate Carrique will be responsible for the Administrative command of York Regional Police. He brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the position, and I look forward to working with him and with Deputy Chief of Operations Bruce Herridge, as we continue to build an organization that is vision-inspired, mission-focused and values-driven.”

“I am honoured to be given the opportunity to serve the community and the members of York Regional Police as their newest Deputy Chief,” said Deputy Chief Designate Carrique. “I believe that leadership is a great responsibility, particularly for a police leader who is charged with the duty of leading the brave men and women who risk their lives daily to protect the public and safeguard the quality of life in our communities. I look forward to working under the leadership of Chief Eric Jolliffe and alongside Deputy Chief Bruce Herridge and all of our talented and dedicated sworn and civilian members to ensure that our citizens feel safe and secure through excellence in policing.”

Deputy Chief Designate Carrique will be sworn in as Deputy Chief of York Regional Police on Wednesday, March 23, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at the York Region Administrative Centre, 17250 Yonge Street in Newmarket.

The Regional Municipality of York Police Services Board is a seven-member civilian Board that is responsible for governing York Regional Police and for recruiting and hiring the Chief of Police and the Deputy Chiefs of Police.
