The value of property recovered increased to $35,530,826, or by 453.4% in 2020 from $6,420,995 in 2019. However, on-scene occurrences decreased 62.2% to 345 in 2020 from 912 in 2019. Research demonstrates that due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the need for social service support increased. Pandemic lockdowns caused families to be confined at home, school closures, and job losses, resulting in possible increased tensions in the home. For those experiencing violence, especially in the home it is difficult to access regular networks and sources of support, formally and informally, leading to an increase in telephone crisis calls.⁵

INTRODUCTION

This report documents aggregate level crime statistics pertaining to the incidents reported to York Regional Police between January 01 and December 31, 2020. The report is structured into three sections: statistics for York Region, statistics for the Districts and statistics for the Municipalities. Results of the current reporting year (2020) are compared with the previous year (2019) for all the data tables prepared for the York Region, Districts and Municipalities. Trends in the last five years (2016-2020) are provided for key indicators of regional data. A glossary of terms, types of violations and changes in Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) survey methodology during last five-year period are included in the appendices.

METHODOLOGY

The Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS) of Statistics Canada, in conjunction with police jurisdictions across Canada, collects Criminal Code violations data through the incident based Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) survey methodology. The UCR survey was established in 1962 with cooperation and assistance to the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP). The UCR survey was designed to measure criminal incidents that have been reported to federal, provincial/territorial and municipal police services in Canada.

UCR survey methodology classifies incidents according to the four most serious violations in the incident (generally the violations that carry the longest maximum sentences under the Criminal Code). Violent incidents are classified differently from other types of crime. For violent crime, a separate incident is recorded for each victim. In categorizing incidents, violent violations always take precedence over non-violent violations.

York Regional Police implements UCR survey methodology and captures data in the process of receiving incident reports, providing investigative services and resolving the incidents, where possible. York Regional Police publishes crime statistics based on the number of reported violations using the UCR survey methodology. Crime counts presented in this report are based on all violations in a criminal incident.

The Regional Municipality of York Planning Department has provided 2020 population estimates of York Region, Districts and Municipalities. The estimates are based on the results of Census 2016 counts⁶ and Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) housing completion data in York Region. Crime rates are calculated based on the year-end population estimates received from the Regional Municipality of York.

The report includes statistics for the Alarm Program, Crime Stoppers, Legal Services, Victim Services of York Region and other services (police clearance letters, volunteer screening, MVC/Incident summary reports, warrants processed etc.) provided by the Information Management Bureau. Also, the report includes information for selected non-criminal statistics such as mentally ill persons, mental health apprehensions, suicide attempts, non-criminal deaths and missing persons.

Crime rates incorporated in this report were estimated for all categories irrespective of the size of the denominator. Generally, rates and ratios are not reliable if it is based on a small number (less than 30). Readers are requested to consider the fact of 'small number' while using crime rate data presented in this report.

For a reported incident, York Regional Police provides investigative resources towards resolving an incident. For some crime types, the process may take years as new investigative information is updated in the records management system. All data in this report is based on reported crime and represents a "snapshot" at the time of extraction from the records management system at year-end. Unless otherwise noted, any updates or revisions to data for the years prior to 2020 are not reflected in this report.

MAKING COMPARISONS

Unless otherwise noted, all crime statistics in this report are compiled using the "all violations" methodology. The statistics presented in this report should not be compared with those provided by the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS), a division of Statistics Canada. The CCJCSS published data measures only the most serious offence related to an incident. In addition, the CCJCSS includes the number of offences reported by the Toronto North Detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) with York Regional Police's crime statistics.

However, the CCJCSS data should be used for comparisons between policing jurisdictions, municipalities and provinces as all data is compiled using the same reporting methodology and those include incidents reported to municipal, provincial and federal policing organizations.

Crime statistics of 2020 were impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic restrictions imposed by the Regional Municipality of York, the Province of Ontario and Canada on March 17, 2020. The 2020 data presented in this report demonstrates the impact of the pandemic and how it affected crime statistics on individuals and businesses.

APPENDIX A: GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Actual totals include only those incidents for which an occurrence report was made and have been substantiated through police investigation.

ATM Robberies include robberies at ATM machines within financial institutions or at stand-alone locations where the victim is approached and forced to withdraw money or is robbed as they are leaving the machine.

Calls to 9-1-1 Communications Centre include all telephone calls, 911 and non-emergency, made by members of the public.

Car Jacking includes robberies where the intent is to steal a motor vehicle with the use or threat of violence against the person(s) in care or control of that vehicle.

Charged/Suspect-Chargeable (CSC) is a person who has been identified as an accused in an incident and against whom a charge may be laid in connection with the incident.

Citizen Generated Calls for Service occur when a citizen requests or requires a police response of any kind. Requests are received by, but not limited to, 911 telephone calls, non-emergency telephone calls, walk-in requests, online reports, or requests via other agencies.

Clearance Rates are calculated by the number of violations cleared by charge or otherwise (persons processed by other means) divided by the number of violations. These violations may not necessarily have occurred during the reporting period but sometime prior.

Complainant is the target of a non-violent incident. The complainant can be a person or a company depending on the type of crime.

Crime Rates are expressed as a rate per 100,000 population using year-end population estimates supplied by the York Region Long Range Planning Department and have been rounded to two decimal points. The rate for youth crime is based on 1,000 youth population.

Deposit Robberies include robberies where a business deposit is stolen from a person using force.

Dispatched Calls are those 911 emergency telephone calls and non-emergency telephone calls, which are received at the communications bureau, assessed and then dispatched to front-line officers to assist victim(s) or address concerns.

Fatal Motor Vehicle Collisions Contributing Factors are based on the Major Collision Investigation Unit's interpretation of each collision. Distracted driving is counted if there is some physical or witnessed evidence to suggest the collision was linked to distraction. Inattentive is based on witness or physical evidence that would cause belief that the responsible driver was inattentive and there is no other explanation for the collision. All other categories are self-explanatory.

Financial Robberies include robberies occurring at banks, credit unions, or involving armoured cars.

APPENDIX A: GLOSSARY OF TERMS (CONT'D...)

Hate Crime means a criminal offence committed against a person or property, which is motivated by the offender's bias, prejudice, or hate based on victim's race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, or any other similar factor.

Home Invasion is an intrusion into a residence with the intent of robbing the occupants therein.

Incident or criminal incident is the set of connected events that usually constitute in a police occurrence report. An incident may involve several victims, several CSCs, and multiple violations of the law. An incident report in RMS can contain up to four different violations.

Non-Criminal Deaths include natural deaths, suicidal deaths, non-traffic accidental deaths and undetermined deaths. The last three categories constitute non-natural deaths.

Offence is defined as a statistical fact for aggregate-based reporting. This terminology is not used in incident-based reporting.

Other Robberies include robberies that do not meet the criteria for any of the other categories. Examples include hotel robberies, robberies by uninvited guests at house parties, and break and enter occurrences that result in a robbery occurring.

Retail Robberies include robberies occurring at retail or commercial premises including convenience stores, restaurants/fast food establishments, massage parlours, gas stations, and donut/coffee shops.

Street Robberies include muggings, intimidation style robberies, and all other robberies by force or threat of force that occurs in a public place.

Unfounded incidents are those where it has been determined through police investigation that the offence reported did not occur, nor it was attempted. This new definition of unfounded was introduced in January 2018. The prior definition of unfounded was 'an incident is unfounded if it has been determined through police investigation that no violations of law took place at that time or location'.

Founded incident is if, after police investigation it has been determined that the reported offence did occur or was attempted or there is no credible evidence to confirm that the reported incident did not take place. This includes third party reports that fit these criteria.

Violation refers to a contravention of the Criminal Code, Federal, or Provincial Statutes.

Victim is a person who is the target of a violent or aggressive action or threat.

Young Person or Youth refers to a person aged 12 - 17 years inclusive (Youth Criminal Justice Act).

Part A: includes bail violations, counterfeiting currency, disturb the peace, escape custody, indecent Act, child pornography, public morals, obstruct peace/public officer, prisoner unlawfully at large, trespass at night, fail to appear, breach of probation, utter threats to property-animal, advocating genocides, and public incitement of hatred.

APPENDIX C: CHANGES IN UCR SURVEY REPORTING METHODOLOGY (2016-2020)

Changes are made to UCR survey methodology by the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS) of Statistics Canada. There are two types of changes that affect UCR survey: changes brought in by the Government of Canada in the form of a new bill or law, and changes that are initiated by the CCJCSS, most often because of feedback or requests from police services or recommendations from the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP). This section also includes policy and operational changes made by York Regional Police that might affect crime statistics presented for the municipalities, Districts or for the Region. The following sections outline what changes were made to the UCR survey methodology during the last five-year period, 2016-2020.

In 2016, changes were made to UCR methodology in relation to Bill C-36 the Protection of Communities and Exploited Persons Act, which was granted royal assent in December 2014. The legislation resulted in updates to: a) sexual offences against children, b) commodification of sexual activity, c) offences in relation to offering, providing or obtaining sexual services for consideration, and, d) disorderly houses, gaming and betting offences. New violations classified as 'commodification of sexual activity' under Crimes Against Persons included purchasing sexual services, receiving material benefit from the purchase of sexual services and advertising sexual services. The changes were implemented in May 2016.

In May 2016, the Bill C-14 Medical Assistance in Dying Act, 2016 was granted royal assent resulting in the addition of three new UCR Survey violations codes for failure to comply with safeguards/regulations and forging/destruction of documents. The new offences were incorporated in 2016.

In May 2017, Bill C-37 An Act to amend the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act and to make related amendments to other Acts was granted royal assent, resulting in increased penalties for six drug violations. CCJCSS adjusted the UCR Survey and the changes were implemented in 2017.

In November 2017, the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS) added four new violation codes specific to opioids (other than heroin) to the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) survey. The addition of these codes was in response to the need expressed by police services to capture the prevalence of opioids using violation codes specific to these types of drugs. Previously, offences related to the possession, trafficking, importation and exportation and production of opioids (other than heroin) were included under 'other controlled drugs and substances'. The changes were implemented in December 2017.

In December 2017, Bill C-305 An Act to amend the Criminal Code (mischief) was granted royal assent, resulting in changes of the definition of violation code 2176 to 'Hate motivated mischief relating to property used by identifiable group' from 'Mischief to religious property motivated by hate'. The enactment amended Section 430(4.1) of the Criminal Code. CCJCSS made changes to UCR Survey and the changes were implemented in 2018.

APPENDIX C: CHANGES IN REPORTING METHODOLOGY (CONT'D...)

In January 2018, the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics in consultation with the Police Information and Statistics (POLIS) Committee made UCR methodology changes by introducing new standards for reporting founded and unfounded incidents. The definitions of both unfounded and founded were updated as:

Unfounded: An incident is unfounded if it has been determined through police investigation that the offence reported did not occur, nor it was attempted.

Founded: An incident is founded if, after police investigation it has been determined that the reported offence did occur or was attempted or there is no credible evidence to confirm that the reported incident did not take place. This includes third party reports that fit these criteria.

In June 2018, the Canadian Government granted royal assent to Bill C-45: “An Act respecting cannabis and to amend the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, the Criminal Code and other Acts”. The come into force date for the legislation was October 17, 2018. In response to the legislation, CCJCSS has introduced 22 new drug offences to the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Survey. The existing four cannabis-specific violations were expired. The changes were implemented in 2018.

In June 2018, the Canadian Government granted royal assent to Bill C-46: ‘An Act to amend the Criminal Code (offences relating to conveyances) and to make consequential amendments to other Acts’. In response to the legislation, CCJCSS made changes to the UCR methodology in two steps (part). The come into force date for part 1 of the legislation was June 21, 2018, and for part 2 was December 18, 2018. The changes were implemented in December 2018.

Part 1 of Bill C-46 amended the provisions of the Criminal Code that deal with offences and procedures relating to impaired driving. As a result, seven new UCR violation codes were added to the survey. Of those, one violation captures operation while impaired with a low blood drug concentration, three violations capture impaired driving where the substance (whether alcohol or drug) causing impairment is not known, and three violations capture impaired driving where it is known that the impairment was caused by a combination of alcohol and drugs.

Part 2 of Bill C-46 repealed the provisions of the Criminal Code that deal with offences and procedures relating to conveyances, including those provisions enacted by part 1, and replaced them with provisions in a new part of the Criminal Code. In response to part 2 of Bill C-46, all existing UCR traffic violation codes were mapped to new Criminal Code sections or expired. Altogether, 12 new violations were added, 15 violations (including three provincial offences) were expired and the maximum penalties were increased for 15 pre-existing offences.

In December 2014, The Canadian Government granted royal assent to Bill C-13 ‘Protecting Canadians from Online Crime Act.’ The legislation raised the maximum penalty for Criminal Code section 372. The come into force date was December 9, 2014, but the change was not implemented in the UCR survey by CCJCSS at that time. Effective October 2018, the maximum penalty ‘indecent/harassing communications’ was increased from six months to two years. The related changes were implemented by CCJCSS in 2018.

APPENDIX C: CHANGES IN REPORTING METHODOLOGY (CONT'D...)

In December 2018, CCJCSS in consultation with the Police Information and Statistics Committee, introduced a number of changes to the gender category in the Uniform Crime Reporting Survey. The changes were in response to Bill C-16: An Act to amend the Canadian Human Rights Act and the Criminal Code which came into force on June 19, 2017. This legislation added gender identity and gender expression to the list of prohibited grounds of discrimination and protects members of the public who are distinguished by gender identity or expression against offences motivated by bias, prejudice, or hate. The changes were implemented in December 2018.

In June 2019, the Canadian Government granted royal assent to Bill C-75, "An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Youth Criminal Justice Act and Other Acts to make consequential amendments to other Acts". As a response to the legislation change, CCJCSS made changes to the UCR survey methodology by expiring two offences and increasing maximum penalties for nine existing offences. York Regional Police implemented the associated changes in July 2019.

In November 2019, CCJCSS introduced the new violation of 'sexual offence occurring prior to January 04, 1983' to the UCR survey for capturing historical sexual offences. The change was implemented in December 2019.

On March 17, 2020, the Province of Ontario made a declaration under the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act (EMCPA). In a letter to all Chiefs of Police, the Ontario Ministry of the Solicitor General informed Police Services about new set fines for offences under the EMCPA. York Regional Police implemented these provisions immediately.

In April 2020, the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS) made adjustments to the Uniform Crime Reporting Survey in response to the Federal Government amendments to the Contraventions Regulations (Quarantine Act). New offence codes were introduced for federal violations of the Quarantine Act and implemented at York Regional Police immediately.

In April 2020, the City of Vaughan introduced a by-law to regulate activities deemed to have a potentially adverse impact on the health and wellbeing of the public during the COVID-19 Emergency. The by-law was in line with the declaration of Emergency by the Province of Ontario. New offence codes were introduced in April 2020 as per the by-law.

In July 2020, the Canadian Centre for Justice and Community Safety Statistics (CCJCSS) introduced changes to selected prostitution violation labels used for collection and publication within the Uniform Crime Reporting Survey. The new labels were endorsed by the Police Information and Statistics (POLIS) Committee in September 2019. The changes were implemented within York Regional Police immediately.
