

Policing in a Multicultural Community

Presentation to
The Regional Municipality of York
Police Services Board
December 4, 2019

Superintendent Ricky Veerappan
Community Services, York Regional Police

Deeds Speak

Presentation Overview

- York Region - Our Microcosm of the World
- Global Events - Local Impact
- Hate Crime Prevention
- A Snapshot of Community Engagement
- Policing through the Lens of Human Rights
- Together We are More

Deeds Speak

Our Microcosm of the World

Immigration and Language

1.2M residents
120+ languages
47% have immigrated

THE REGIONAL MUNICIPALITY
OF YORK
(YORK REGION)

Faith Affiliations

77% have a religious affiliation

56%
Christian

5%
Hindu

6%
Jewish

3%
Buddhist

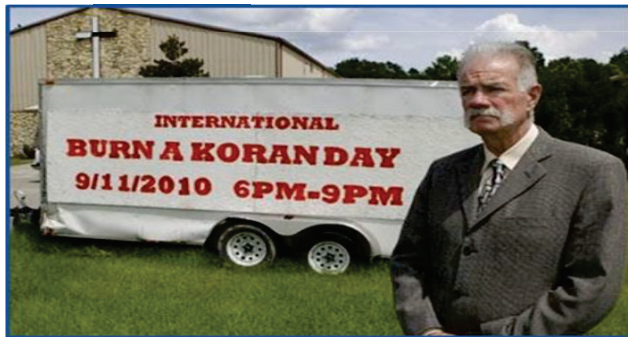

6%
Muslim

1%
Sikh

Global Conflict - Local Impact

Hate Crime Prevention

International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination

Planet Africa

Patricia Bebia Mawa

York Region PRIDE Parade

YRP Chaplaincy

A man in a military uniform stands at a wooden podium, addressing a group of people seated in a conference room. The room has wood-paneled walls and a large emblem on the wall behind the speaker. The audience is seated in rows of chairs, facing the speaker.

Visiting a Gurdwara

Observing Hanukkah

Celebrating with Community

Places of Worship Tour Meet & Greet

Immigrant Welcome Centres

Policing through the Lens of Human Rights

"In our ongoing quest for caring, prosperous and productive communities, we commit ourselves to the value of human rights as the primary component towards the understanding and acceptance of diversity, equity and inclusion in our increasingly global community."

- Chief Eric Jolliffe
York Regional Police

Capitalizing on the Opportunities

Education, Awareness & Empowerment

Towards Peaceful Coexistence

Sense of Belonging

Together We Are More

Thank you Questions?

Superintendent Ricky Veerappan
Community Services, York Regional Police
545@yrp.ca