Recognition of Former Board Members

Mayor Frank Scarpitti's term on the Board ended in October. He has served on the Board for 10 years and as Chair for the last five years. During Mayor Scarpitti's tenure, the Board has overseen substantial changes to York Regional Police including an expansion to the Service's resources while ensuring one of the lowest policing costs per capita in Ontario. Mayor Scarpitti has been a strong advocate for change. With his leadership, the Board advocated for changes to the medical marijuana access laws, provincial funding to combat guns and gang violence in York Region and more recently for police funding to enforce the Cannabis Act. In 2015, Mayor Scarpitti supported the Board's resolution that called on the federal government for an inquiry into missing and murdered indigenous women and girls.

The Board also recognized former member Brad Rogers for his dedicated and committed service to the Board and to the citizens of York Region. Mr. Rogers' term on the Board ended on September 30. Mr. Rogers has supported the Board's mandate and demonstrated his commitment to good governance and community safety. He was involved in some significant board decisions including the budget approval processes and the approval of the current Business Plan and was a member of the Board's bargaining committee during the last round of bargaining.

Report on Public Complaints Against Police

In the first six months of this year, 77 public complaints were received by the Office of the Independent Police Review Director (OIPRD) against York Regional Police officers compared with 70 during the same time in 2016. Thirty-six complaints were deemed to not be in the public interest, frivolous, or more appropriately dealt with under another Act or law; one complaint was unsubstantiated; 11 public complaints were withdrawn by the complainant; nine complaints were resolved informally and 19 complaints remain under investigation. The OIPRD is responsible for the intake, processing and management of public complaints in Ontario. The OIPRD has the authority to screen incoming complaints and can refuse to accept a public complaint for a number of reasons. Click here for the full report.

Equity and Inclusion Policy

The York Regional Police Services Board is committed to providing policing services to citizens that are equitable, inclusive, fair and without discrimination and harassment. The Board approved a policy on equity and inclusion which is one of several Board policies that addresses discrimination, harassment, human rights, accessibility and inclusivity. The Board is committed to providing police services in a manner that adheres to the principles in the Ontario Human Rights Code and in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Further, the Board is committed to ensuring that all York Regional Police members and volunteers work in an environment without discrimination and harassment.
